If I buy the world, and give it to the poor and don't have love, I give nothing at all I can start a church, even pay the cost but if I don't have love, everything will be lost

If the word abides in me, and I abide in You I ask what I want and it'll come true I ask for love, to flow selflessly then I'll know the truth and He will set me free

Yes we're learning to love each other Breaking the power of this lie Yes, our lives can really touch another There's only one thing that prevails
 Love never fails
