

The End of Some Things

Honky Tonk

Don Potter

INTRO

E E7
3x

VERSE

5 There is a pro - mise I can still hear

9 That one day I might en - ter His rest

13 Though we all know the end is near

17 I can't help but won - der if I failed the test Well

21 then I just re - mem - ber the good news preached to me And I

25 lift my voice to hea - ven once a - gain And He

29 speaks these words that shake me to my feet

33 This may be the end of some things But it's not the end of me

A B E

37 I'm gon - na live for - e - ver in Christ my Sa - vior who died

CHORUS F#m7(add4) E/G#

40 and was raised back up I'm gon - na wake one mor - ning in a -

A B E F#m7(add4)

43 no - ther place called the king - dom of love I still

E/G# A B

46 won - der why I spent so much time a - fraid when I was made

C#m B/D# A/E

49 free This may be the end of some things as we know it but

B A E

52 it's not the end of me

F#m7(add4) B E E7 A A7 D.C.

There will be rumors, there's already wars
 There will be battles in the heavenlies
 Perilous times are coming our way
 Many will faint from anxiety

Then a cloud of witnesses starts calling me
 And I lift up my voice to heaven once again
 And He speaks these words that shake me to my feet
 "This may be the end of some things
 But it's not the end of me"