

Bios

Don Potter teaches out of his strong passion for the kingdom of God and our need to be born again, AGAIN. He draws from his intimate time with the Lord to impart revelation and truth to the body of Christ. Don is a lifelong guitarist, songwriter, singer, and musical forerunner who has journeyed through concert stages, studios, and churches, and is a respected and sought-after worship leader. He also has a heart to see musicians released, both in the church and in the world, seeing their gifts and talents used with excellence while being led by the Holy Spirit.

Christine Potter moves in a flow of spontaneous teaching and training inspired by her own personal journey of restoration. Christine is a living demonstration of the freedom that is available to all of God's children. Testimonies of breakthrough, creativity, renewed vision, joy and new life have come from her seminars all over the world. Through her timely message, we learn to challenge, nurture, and recharge our lives and the lives of others by aligning our human spirits with the Holy Spirit of the living God. Christine's teaching will release you into deeper intimacy with the Lord and renewed strength to engage with God in our everyday lives.

Don and Christine Potter are pioneers in the release of "Spontaneous Spirit Praise" the natural, authentic expression of God's Spirit within us demonstrated through music and movement. www.donpottermusic.com